

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

PAUL R. FISHER, ESQ.

ADR EXPERIENCE:

- Mediated and settled hundreds of complex multi-party cases since 1986 and heard hundreds of cases in binding arbitrations since 1978
- Construction Defect
- Real Estate and Business
- Insurance Coverage and Subrogation
- Securities Employment

PUBLICATIONS: Author of numerous publications including:

- “All You Need to Know About Mediation But Didn’t Know to Ask -- A Parachute for Parties in Litigation,” Business Law News, the State Bar of California, Business Law Section, Fall 1998
- “Creative Mediation Design,” Los Angeles Lawyer, May 1995
- “How to Successfully Mediate a Case: Tips to Attorneys and Mediators,” Reprinted in Alternative Dispute Resolution NEWSALERT, 1993

LEGAL:

- Faculty: Serves as faculty in enumerable ADR programs before Bar Associations, Law Firms, and annual Arbitration/Mediation day conferences
- Legal Background: construction defect, real estate and business litigation 1971-1991

ACADEMIC:

- Pepperdine University School of Law, Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution, continuing
- Mediation training from various ADR providers
- Juris Doctor, University of San Diego, School of Law, 1969

