

Biographical Information

Raymond T. Gail, Esq.

Mr. Gail was admitted to the California Bar in 1965. He joined the firm of Hagenbaugh, Murphy & Medearis and became a partner in 1970. He opened and operated a branch office in San Bernardino from 1971-1973 for the firm of Hagenbaugh, Murphy & Gail. He became a solo practitioner in 1973, and formed Gail & Varden in 1980. In 1990, Mr. Gail returned to the firm of Hagenbaugh & Murphy in the San Bernardino area. In 1999, Mr. Gail continued working for the firm of Moore, Winter, Skebba & McLennan.

Mr. Gail has been an arbitrator and mediator for six years. He has mediated or arbitrated cases in the areas of Medical and Professional Liability, Catastrophic Injury, Construction Defect, Contractual and Business matters as well as Water Craft cases and Public Entity Representation (County of San Bernardino).

Mr. Gail has worked exclusively with IVAMS from 2003 to the present during which time he has mediated numerous cases for the San Bernardino Superior Court as well as private mediations.

Mr. Gail has practiced law for 44 years with extensive Trial experience having tried over 75 Superior Court Cases to verdict not quite half of which were Medical Liability cases. He also serves as a Settlement Conference Mediator for the California State Court of Appeal. In the past, Mr. Gail has served the Superior Court of San Bernardino as a volunteer member of settlement panels set up in an attempt to reduce the civil backlog.

Mr. Gail received his Bachelors Degree from UCLA in 1961 and graduated from UCLA Law School in 1964. He is a member of the San Bernardino County Bar Association, California State Bar, and the American Board of Trial Advocates.

