

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

SIDNEY W. JONES

GENERAL BACKGROUND:

- Graduate University of Southern California School of Law.
- Member of Law Review, 1959.
- UCLA School of Business, 1956.

LEGAL AND ACADEMIC:

- A six-hour course with the California Academy of Mediation Professionals in Cross-Cultural Dispute Resolution completed on April 25, 2002
- Certified as a Mediator, Pepperdine University Course on Mediation, 2001
- General Civil Practice, 1960 to present
- Emphasis on Property Law representing many developers, real estate brokers, and escrows;
- Past clients include:
- Western San Bernardino Board of Realtors
- Crowell/Leventhal Builders
- Ontario Ontario Savings Savings and Loan including Escrow Department
- Member of Hot Line Panel for California Association of Realtors answering questions for Association of Realtors where conflict exists with CAR members

JUDICIAL EXPERIENCE:

- Member of Los Angeles Superior Court Dispute Resolution Program
- Judge Pro Tem in San Bernardino County
- Arbitrator on San Bernardino County Judicial Arbitration Panel

ADR QUALIFICATIONS: REAL ESTATE SPECIALTY PANELS:

- Represent now and in the past numerous real estate brokers and escrows.
- Instructor for the Building Industry Assn. (BIA) in Real Estate and Construction Law.
- Current on classes from CEB in Real Estate and Construction Law.

OTHER:

- Qualified to serve as Judge Pro tem, Arbitrator or Mediator in Real Estate and Construction matters.
- Qualified to serve on general arbitration contract matters.
Qualified to serve on Family Law matters.
- Six-hour course with the California Academy of Mediation Professionals in Cross-Cultural Dispute Resolution completed April 25, 2002.