

ARBITRATION & MEDIATION SERVICES

Biographical Information

Edward J. Zorn, Esq. CCIM

Edward J. Zorn spent over 15 years as a real estate litigation attorney, and has been a mediator since 2002. As the managing broker for a real estate brokerage firm and the owner of a real estate investment company, Ed brings practical transactional knowledge as well as court room experience into each hearing. He is a Certified Commercial Investment Manager (CCIM), the highest designation in the commercial real estate field.

Ed handles all types of real estate and construction disputes, including those involving: Buyers, Sellers, Landlords, Tenants, Contractors, Owners, Agents, Brokers, Escrows, Neighbors, Investors, Lenders, Managers, Associations, and Family Members. He is known for his excellent listening skills, and his ability to quickly comprehend complex legal and practical issues causing disputes. Flexibility is a hallmark of Ed's mediation approach. With a strong sense of value to fairness, and justice, Ed balances these attributes with a commitment to peace, and mutual gain. Education of the parties entangled in a dispute is also a large priority, with a focus on informed decision making and self-determination. As a result, both evaluative and facilitative techniques are used when appropriate and beneficial to the parties.
