

Biographical Information

Brad D. Citron, Esq.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Litigation Trial Attorney for 38 years. Primary responsibility for all phases of litigation through discovery, mediation, and trial. I have litigated a wide variety of cases including all types of tort claims, contractual disputes, property claims, construction, and personal injury. Nearly all the cases have been resolved to the satisfaction of both the Plaintiff and Defendant. My experience has been called upon in hundreds of mediations to identify the key issues and recommend the case value for settlement. This experience qualifies me as an excellent choice for your case.

PRACTICE AREAS

Personal Injury * Premises Liability * Habitability Claims * Professional Negligence *
Elder Abuse * Dependent Adult Abuse * Construction Defects * Wrongful Death *
Negligent Security * Commercial Property Negligence * Auto / Commercial Transportation
* Medical Malpractice * Products Liability * Unlawful Detainer * Subrogation * Real Estate *
Neighbor Disputes Dog Bites

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science – Florida State University - Government / Criminology
1978 - Tallahassee, FL
Juris Doctor – Western State University College of Law (Thomas Jefferson Law School)
1982 - San Diego, CA
Certificate in Dispute Resolution - Straus Institute at Pepperdine School of Law
2011 – Malibu, CA

MEMBERSHIPS and ASSOCIATIONS

State Bar of California- 1985 California State Bar No.119611
CA Federal Admissions- Central, Northern, Southern Districts- 1985, 1987
9th Circuit Court of Appeal- 1987
Los Angeles Superior Court Arbitrator- 1990– 2005
Florida State University Alumni Association
Make-a-Wish Foundation

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Born Peoria, Illinois
Active in Junior League Golf – City Runner-Up 3 consecutive years
Richwoods High School Golf Team

ACTIVITIES / INTERESTS

Golf
Early 1970's Classic GM Autos
College Sports
Domestic and International Travel
Wine and Culinary Fund Raising Events