Professional Experience

As a litigator for 37 years and as a member of his former law firm's Board of Directors, Mr. McGirr has been responsible for all aspects of civil, trial and appellate practice and has tried or arbitrated countless cases over the years. He has actively litigated cases involving a multitude of allegations and issues, including medical malpractice, professional liability, general liability, product liability, elder abuse, dependent adult abuse, sexual assault, motor vehicle accidents, trucking accidents, personal injury and construction defects.

Brad has served as a Pro Tem Judge for the Superior Court of the County of Orange and has volunteered his time and expertise to provide free legal services to low-income residents of Orange County through the Public Law Center.

Mr. McGirr holds the highest ethical and legal rating through Martindale-Hubbell (AV) and has been selected as a Southern California "Super Lawyer" every year since 2012, a distinction reserved for those who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

In addition to practicing law, Brad was elected to the Rancho Santa Margarita City Council in 2012. He served as the city's Mayor in 2015 and 2020, and currently serves as Mayor Pro Tem.

Brad has earned a reputation as a conscientious, ethical attorney who treats all parties and counsel in a dignified, respectful manner. When serving as a mediator or an arbitrator, Brad takes great pride in working toward a fair and equitable resolution of every case.
